

EXHIBIT B
NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYEES AND APPLICANTS

It is the policy of the University of Chicago to recruit, hire, train and promote, into all job classifications, the most qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, sexual orientation, disability, or veteran status. Also, employment and promotional decisions will be based on valid job requirements and by utilizing reasonable standards.

Aneesah Ali, Assistant Provost and Affirmative Action Officer, is the designated EEO Coordinator at the University. The EEO Coordinator's responsibility is to implement and to audit and monitor adherence to this policy.

Any employees or applicants with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor or the EEO Coordinator. Employees and applicants can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal, harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination because they: (1) file a complaint with the University of Chicago or with federal, state, or local agencies; (2) assist or participate in any investigation, compliance review, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of any federal, state, or local equal employment opportunity or affirmative action statute; (3) oppose any act or practice made unlawful by federal, state, or local law requiring equal employment opportunity or affirmative action; or (4) exercise any other employment right protected by federal, state, or local law or its implementing regulations.

The Affirmative Action Plan for Individuals with Disabilities and Veterans is on file in the Human Resources Office and the Affirmative Action Office and is available for employee and applicant review between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. As part of that Affirmative Action Plan, the University prohibits any harassment against any individuals with disabilities or covered veterans. Any employee or applicant who would like to review the Affirmative Action Plan for Individuals with Disabilities and Veterans should contact Aneesah Ali, Assistant Provost and Affirmative Action Officer, 773-702-5671.

Don M. Randal, President, is committed to all of the objectives of equal employment opportunity and expects the cooperation and participation of all employees of the University in achieving these objectives.
